Update from County Staff

Online Open House

- ▶ The online open house was open to the public from October 5th-24th
- ▶ 23 comments received:
 - ❖ 6 Speed & Safety
 - ❖ 9 Pedestrian Connectivity
 - ❖ 8 Transit

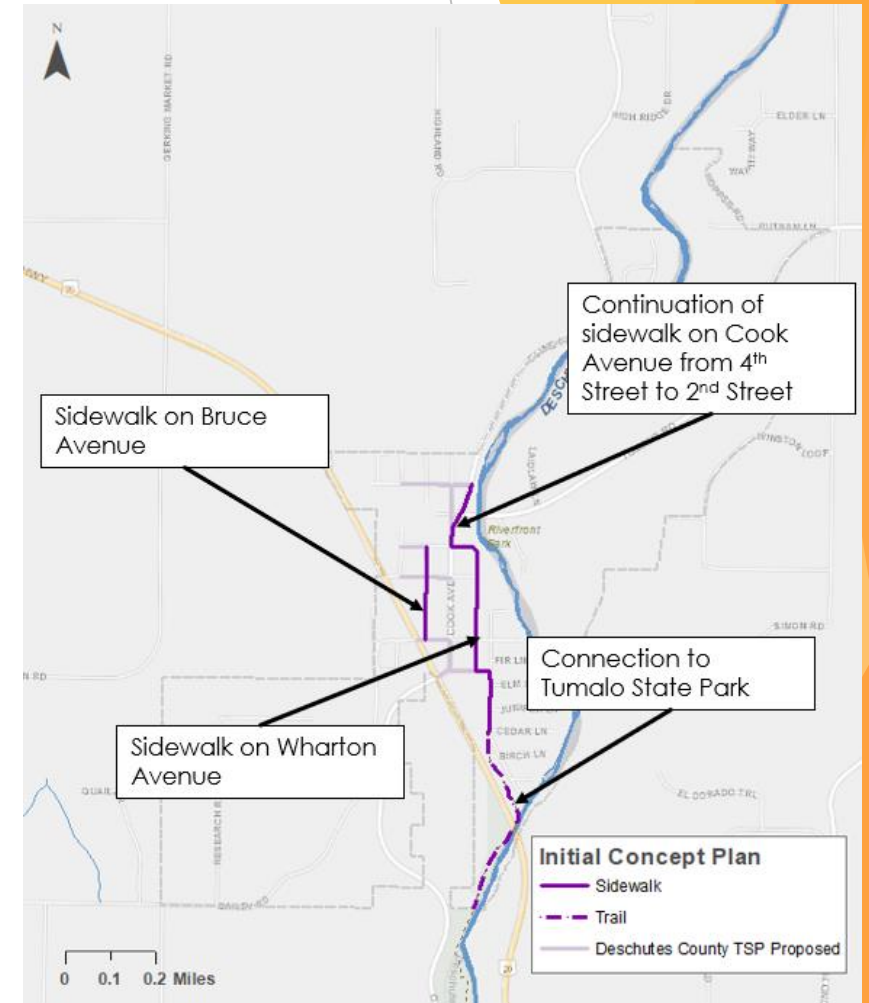

Online Open House – Speed & Safety Comments Summary

- ▶ Concerns about speeds on Cook Ave and Tumalo Rd
- ▶ Mixed support for a roundabout
- ▶ Mixed support for raised intersection

Online Open House – Pedestrian Connectivity

- ▶ General support for ped proposals
- ▶ Several comments about the trail connection to Tumalo State Park:
 - ❖ Concerns about a trailhead in the residential area near Riverview Ave
 - ❖ Support for more connectivity between the Park and downtown area

Online Open House – Transit

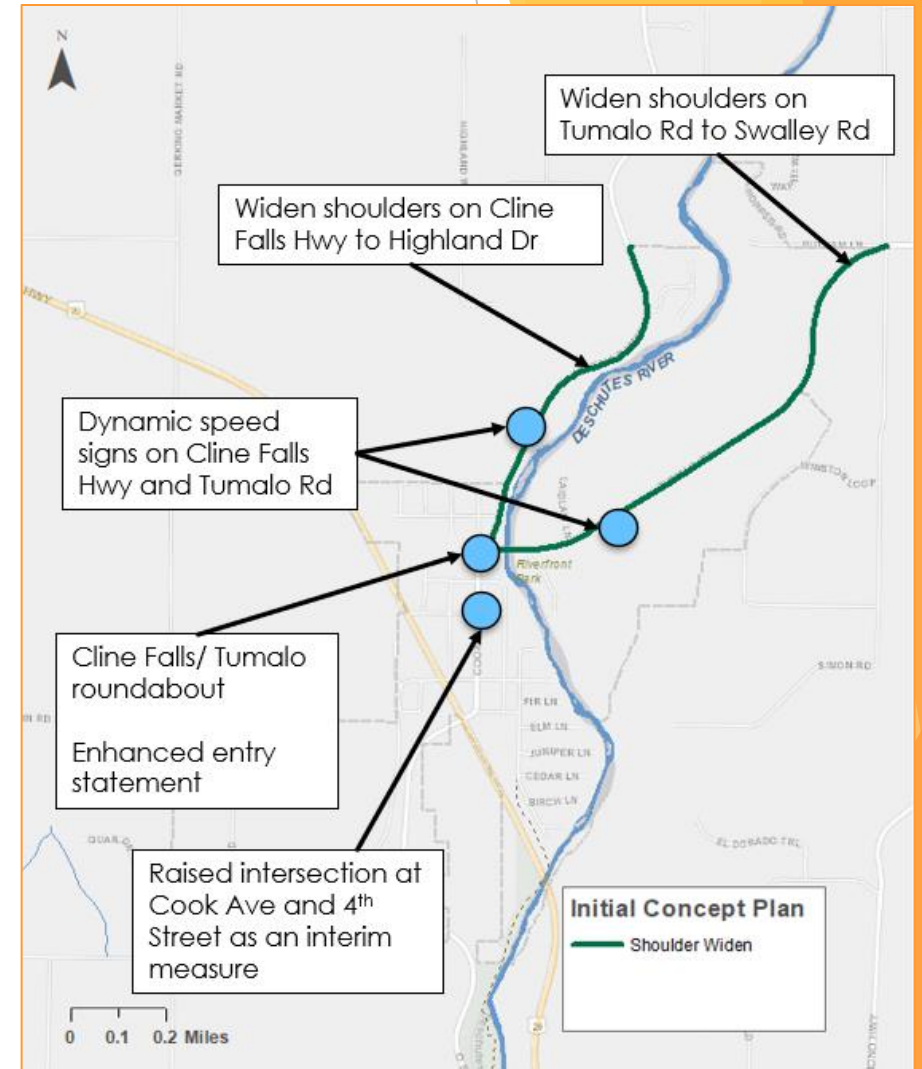

- ▶ Mixed support for a transit stop in Tumalo:
 - ❖ Some feel that is no need for a stop in Tumalo
 - ❖ Concern that transit stop will invite people impacted by homelessness to the area
- ▶ Those in favor of a stop preferred the Bruce Ave stop -- less traffic than the Country Store

Review of Concept Plan

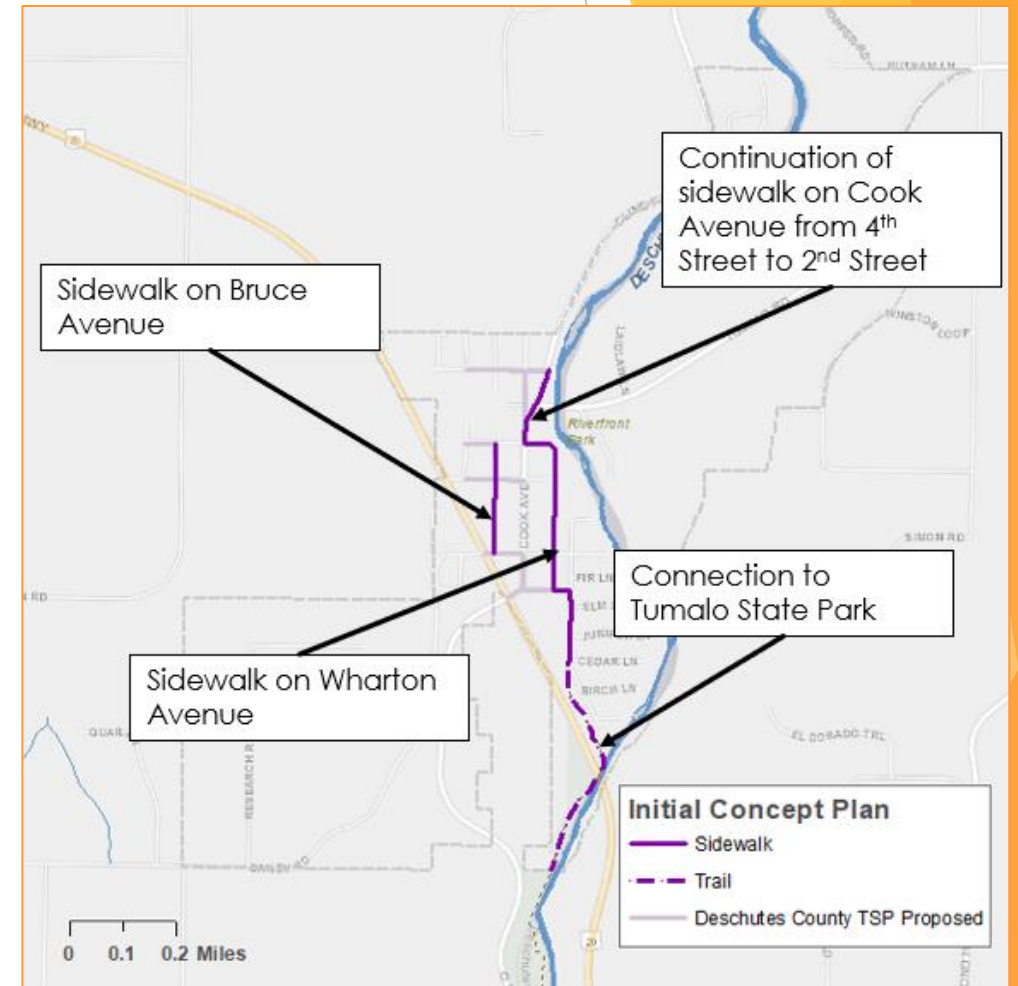

Final Concept Plan: Safety & Speed Improvements

- Roundabout at Cline Falls Hwy and Tumalo Rd
- Raised intersection at Cook Ave/4th St (interim)
- Enhanced entry statement at Cline Falls Hwy/Tumalo Road
- Wider shoulders on Tumalo Rd from the Deschutes River bridge to Swalley Rd
- Wider shoulders on Cline Falls Hwy from Tumalo Rd to Highland Dr
- Dynamic speed warning signs on Cline Falls Hwy and Tumalo Rd

Final Concept Plan: Pedestrian Connectivity

- Sidewalk on both sides of Bruce Ave (prioritize east side)
- Sidewalk/multi-use path on west side of Wharton Ave
- Sidewalk/multi-use path north of 4th St to 2nd St on both sides
- Wayfinding for a walking loop
- Tumalo-to-Tumalo State Park trail (reopen discussion with State Parks)

Final Concept Plan: Transit

- Bruce Ave Stop: preferred
- Country Store (5th St) Stop: possible interim stop until sidewalks are installed on Bruce

Next Steps:

- Implementation Plan
- Final Concept Plan to Decision-Makers
- Incorporation into the Tumalo Community Plan update
- Revisions to the Deschutes County Transportation Plan
